

A.C.E.F.

Instructor

Edmund R. Sledzik ACEF Board Member

Edmund R. Sledzik is a lawyer by trade and a dog enthusiast by choice. He was born and grew up in Massachusetts. He moved to the Washington, DC area in 1964.

Ed has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in History from the College of the Holy Cross. He has a Jurist Doctorate Degree and a Masters of Law in Taxation from Boston University. He is a member of the Massachusetts Bar. He has a small tax practice in Reston, Virginia.

Ed is a member and currently the delegate of the American Lhasa Apso Club. He served on their Board of Directors from the early 70's. He is a member of the Tibetan Spaniel Club of America where he has served as President, Vice-President and Treasurer over the years. He is a member of the Skye Terrier Club of America and a past Vice-President. He currently serves as president of the National Capital Area Lhasa Apso Club.

Along with his wife, Carolyn, he bred Lhasa Apsos since the mid 60's. He bred Tibetan Spaniels in the mid 80's. Ed and Carolyn currently own a Skye Terrier and two Cavalier King Charles Spaniels. He is a member of the Delegates' Advice and Advocacy Committee.

Ed showed his own dogs in the 60's and 70's. He started judging in 1974. He is approved to judge the Non-Sporting Group, 10 breeds in the Toy Group, Junior Showmanship, the Miscellaneous Group and Best In Show. Ed has extensive experience in the rare breed area. He has judged rare breeds since the mid 70's.